Dear Oblate of Mary Immaculate,

I am grateful to Father General and Council, meeting in plenary session, for their appointment of these Provincial Councilors for a three-year term, beginning with their installation in December in Washington DC. Warren Brown called me this morning to inform me of these appointments.

Special thanks to Jim Taggart and Frank Santucci for their insights, support, time, energy and generosity these past three years of service on the Council. Their term ends with the installation of the new Council.

Welcome to Mark Dean and Emmanuel Mulenga as they begin their term as Councilors at the December 8th installation here in Washington DC.

I look forward to continuing our work as a Council with Antonio Ponce, Ray Cook, Art Flores and Jim Brobst. Thanks very much as well to Jim Chambers, Treasurer.

I am also very grateful to the Oblates of the province for your support, dedication, ministry and prayers as we face the future together and continue to bring the good news of Jesus Christ to the poor and abandoned.

In Christ and Mary Immaculate,

Lou
